Dear Ambassador de Brum:

This responds to your letter of May 26, 1999, regarding your request to reconsider your invitation to attend a proposed meeting in Honolulu, Hawaii, on June 21-22, 1999.

My trip to Japan has been cancelled, and I will, therefore, not be able to stop in Honolulu on June 21-22, 1999, as part of a return trip.

I would like to again propose that we plan a similar meeting in Honolulu in October or the fall/winter months at a mutually convenient time.

Please advise as to what alternate dates might be acceptable.

Sincerely,
